Civil Services (Main) Examination, 1999

GEOGRAPHY

(Paper II)

Time Allowed : Three Hours	Maximum Marks : 300

QUESTION PAPER SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

Please read each of the following instructions carefully before attempting questions :

Only nine questions of this paper could be traced. They are reproduced below as "Recovered Questions" (R1–R9); their original numbering is not known and the rest of the paper is missing.

RECOVERED QUESTIONS

R1. Explain the rise of the Himalayan ranges. (Short note)

R2. Examine the need for conservation of biotic resources in India. (Short note)

R3. Nature and utility of multi-level planning in India. (Short note)

R4. Regional consciousness versus national integration in India. (Short note)

R5. Elucidate the mechanism of the Indian Monsoon.

R6. Write an essay on the role of animal husbandry and household industries in the development of rural economy in India.

R7. Discuss the factors for the localisation of either the cement or the cotton textile industry in India and analyse the pattern of its distribution.

R8. Critically examine the complementary and competitive character of the Indian rail-routes and the road network.

R9. Analyse the causes of regional disparities in the economic development of India and suggest measures for their removal.

———————

English version compiled from published transcriptions and cross-checked across sources; not a facsimile of the official UPSC question paper.

Optional Province · optionalprovince.com